B EETHOVEN'S HERO.

A work of art requires no explanation. But the very title Beethoven gave the "Heroic Symphony" confuses rather than explains it away. Chained to his one idea, Wagner asserted that Beethoven's hero was not a military hero, but a young man of complete spiritual and physical endowment, who passed from mere brute delight in life and his strength through tragic suffering to a high spiritual satisfaction in love; that is to say, he asserted that Beethoven's hero was Parsifal or Siegfried.

Now, this much of Wagner's theory is true, that Beethoven would not worship a mere human butcher any more than he would worship a pork butcher as a hero. On the other hand, Beethoven's hero was undoubtedly a military hero—Napoleon Bonaparte. We know that the symphony was originally dedicated to Napoleon; that the dedication was altered when Napoleon as (Beethoven thought) turned traitor and became Emperor; we know that when the news of his death came Beethoven composed the music for that event.

Of what parts, then, of Beethoven's career do the first and last two movements tell? These are questions which can never be answered; and, mere curiosity apart, it so happens that it matters little whether they are answered or not answered, so long as they are not answered altogether wrongly. For whatever events Beethoven might at any moment have in his mind he never tried to depict them, but only to communicate the emotion they aroused. He himself said as much. It is in the expression of human emotion he is supreme, and to feel aright the emotions of the heroic symphony we need only to have our minds clear of a story which Beethoven did not and could not have had in his mind.

The municipal council of Nuremberg has restored the church of St. Catherine, in which Wagner laid the opening scene of "Die Meistersinger," with a view of converting the building into a museum. A monument to Hans Sachs is to be placed in it.

The most musical town in the world is said to be Desterd, in Brazil. To a population of fifteen thousand there are three hundred pianos and seven choral societies. Three small suburbs have two musical societies each.

THE MUSICAL PROGRAMS AT THE PAN-AMERICAN EXPOSITION.

If, as Shakespeare sang, "Music hath charms to soothe the savage breast," the Pan-American Exposition, at Buffalo, promises to furnish enough of it, both in variety and volume, to have hypnotized the ravaging hordes of Genghis Khan, Attila and Tamerlane. Eighteen bands and seventy organizations will contribute to the musical feast at the Exposition this summer. The following dates have been assigned to the various bands: Seventy-fourth Regiment Band (35 men), May 1st to July 29th; Sixty-fifth Regiment Band (35 men), May 1st to July 29th; Seventy-first Regiment Band (45 men), May 6th to June 1st; Thirtieth Regiment Band of Hamilton (40 men), June 3rd to June 8th; Sousa's Band (50 men), June 10th to July 6th; Elgin Band (50 men), July 8th to August 8th; Scinta's Band (36 men), July 29th to August 24th; Carlisle Indian Band (40 men), July 29th to August 24th; Itasca Band (35 men), August 5th to August 10th; Forty-eighth Highlanders (40 men), August 26th to August 31st; Robertson's Band of Albany (40 men), August 29th to August 31st; Salem Cadet Band (45 men), September 2nd to September 14th; Brookes' Band (46 men), September 9th to October 5th; Boston Ladies Band (30 ladies), September 16th to September 28th; Nineteenth Regiment Band (45 men), September 16th to September 21st; Phinney's Band (45 men), August 26th to September 15th; Victor Herbert's Orchestra (60 men), October 7th to October 21st; Newsboys' Band of Grand Rapids. These organizations will be heard in the Temple of Music as well as on the various stands in the Plaza, Esplanade and other parts of the grounds.

The organ music to be presented daily at the Pan-American Exposition promises to be not only of great attractive interest, but of particular educational value as well. Clarence Eddy has expressed his admiration of the plan proposed, and all the organists who have been consulted feel that one of the greatest events in this country's history of organ playing is now in contemplation and preparation. Organists from all over the country will participate. Among the organists who have announced their coming are: Clarence Eddy, Frederic Archer, Mr. Hammond, Mr. Donohoe, Mr. Dethier, Mr. Stewart, and nearly 70 others. Frederic Archer will be the organist for Dedication Day, May 20th. The chairman of the committee on organ music, Mr. Simon Fleischmann, has had a Herculean task in securing and arranging the details of a plan which includes services every day, and arrangements with people from all parts of the country. The Buffalo organists who will give recitals in the series are: Andrew T. Webster, H. S. Hendy, W. J. Gomph, W. S. Jarrett, Seth C. Clark, and Miss Marie F. McConnell.

The Temple of Music is an imposing and ideally beautiful structure, octagonal in shape, and occupying a site 150 feet square at the northwest junction of the Esplanade and the Court of Fountains. This temple will be crowned with a dome whose top is 136 feet above grade, will seat 1,200 people on the main floor and balconies, and will be provided with one of the largest and finest pipe organs in the United States, made to order, and supplied with many entirely new and ingenious accessories.

A musical event of extraordinary magnitude and attractiveness will be the triennial Saengerfest of the North American Saengerbund, to be held at Buffalo during the Pan-American Exposition period. On this occasion and for the stupendous singing feast the grand chorus of male voices will be increased from the largest previous number—3,000—to 5,000, and liberal drafts will be made upon the ranks of the world's most famous singers. It is expected the Saengerfest will have for its auditorium the drill-room of the new armory of the Seventy-fourth Regiment, which will accommodate from twelve to fifteen thousand persons, and every foot of whose space will be required.

The principal national holidays will be observed at the Exposition with musical festivals, in which school children will participate. There will be a grand jubilee chorus of thousands of young voices in the spacious Stadium.

FRANZ RUMMEL DEAD.

FRANZ RUMMEL was born in London, in 1854, of German parents. He inherited his musical tastes from his grandfather, who was a distinguished teacher in his day.

He studied in the Conservatory at Brussels, where he won his first triumph—the grand prize of the first year. This success so impressed the authorities of the Conservatory that they made him a professor of the institution.

He made his first public appearance in 1871, at Antwerp, where his success was immediate. In 1877-8, he toured in Europe with Minnie Hauck and Ole Bull.

After these appearances in Europe, he made his first tour of the United States in 1879. He won in a short time the regard and affections of the musical public.

His second American tour was in 1886; the third in 1898. Up to that year, he had given about 700 concerts. For some years he taught at Stern's Conservatory in Berlin, then at Kullak's. In 1897, the Duke of Anhalt bestowed on him the title of professor.

Probably one of Prof. Rummel's most noted musical qualities was his extraordinary memory, which, it is said, had never been surpassed by any pianist.

On his first visit to America, Mr. Rummel met and married Miss Morse, daughter of Prof. Morse, the great electrical inventor. He had many friends in America, who learned with deep regret of his death.

JOHN PHILIP SOUSA has received a cable message notifying him that the French Government had recognized his services at the Paris Exposition by conferring upon him the decoration known as Officer of the Academy. To become an Officer of the Academy is the ambition of every French musician, the distinction taking rank next to that of the Legion of Honor, and is the principal recognition of artistic merit of France.

THE financial statement of the Pittsburgh Orchestra for the season's work, while showing a deficit, indicates a slight improvement. The figures are: Receipts, $56,539.19; expenses, $78,704.54; deficit, $22,165.15. The deficit for 1899-1900 was $26,597.90. During the last ten seasons Theodore Thomas has performed with his Chicago Orchestra sixty symphonies by twenty-seven composers.

MISSOURI STATE MUSIC TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

The Missouri State Music Teachers' Association will meet at Columbia, Mo., June 18th-21st. Great interest is being manifested by teachers from all parts of the State. A new feature of the musical-festival part of the program will be a chorus of 40 voices from Sedalia, under the direction of Mrs. W. D. Steele. The officers for the year are W. H. Pommer, President, 777 Euclid Avenue, St. Louis; H. E. Rice, Secretary-Treasurer, 1010 Olive Street, St. Louis; Mr. John Picard, Columbia, Chairman of Executive Committee; Mrs.

Carrie F. Voorhees, Kansas City, Chairman of Program Committee.

A COMMITTEE—with Prof. John Fiske, Arthur Foote and Horatio A. Lamb at the head—is trying to raise a fund of $10,000 for the musical department of Harvard University. This department has been growing, and now has over 100 students. Very few of the American Universities have a professorship of music, endowed and supported as are the other departments. We are still looking for wealthy art-patrons to show their appreciation for the opportunity of doing a great good in our institutions for higher learning.

Many a woman is so exquisitely organized that the strains of music cause her to forget to eat or drink until reminded of the necessity by physical exhaustion, but the Nineteenth Century Woman never forgets to be daintily clothed, and she knows too that the place of all others to buy exactly what she wants at just the price she can afford to pay, is

CROWN

PIANO

Is the culmination of more than a century's effort to make the piano an instrument of many and varied tones. Ever since the introduction of the piano, the attainment of this end has been regarded as the highest possible achievement in the development of the piano. From the CLAVICHORD to the many-tone "CROWN" PIANO is a long step, embracing centuries of continuous and painstaking effort which slowly but surely wrought out the development of the piano class of musical instruments, until there was evolved the piano of many tones—the "CROWN"

Some of its Distinctive Qualities are: Perfection and variety of tone, a perfect scale, lightness and responsiveness of touch, repeating capabilities of action, a perfect practice clavier, (found in no other piano), greatly enlarged capacity, almost unlimited capability for the faithful rendition of music, some of which has heretofore been outside of the possibilities of the piano, elegant and unique case designs, and the greatest durability.

Introduction.

Primo.

Arr'd by MELNOTTE

The musical score is written for piano and right-hand part. It begins with an Introduction in 2/4 time, key of B-flat major. The tempo is marked 'Primo'. The score is arranged by Melnotte. The piece is titled 'NECK AND NECK. Impromptu Galop.'.

The score consists of four systems of music. The first system includes a piano part with a forte (f) dynamic and a right-hand part with a forte (f) dynamic. The second system includes a piano part with a piano (p) dynamic and a right-hand part with a piano (p) dynamic. The third system includes a piano part with a piano (p) dynamic and a right-hand part with a piano (p) dynamic. The fourth system includes a piano part with a piano (p) dynamic and a right-hand part with a piano (p) dynamic.

Key features of the score include:

- Tempo and Key: 2/4 time, key of B-flat major.
- Dynamics: f (forte), p (piano), rit (ritardando).
- Articulation: slurs, accents, and various fingerings (1, 2, 3, 4).
- Performance Instructions: Ped. (pedal), Galop. (galop), and various musical symbols like * and x.

First system of musical notation. Treble and bass staves. Treble staff has a forte (f) dynamic marking. Pedal markings are present at the end of the system.

Second system of musical notation. Treble and bass staves. Treble staff has a forte (f) dynamic marking. The word orasi is written above the treble staff. Pedal markings are present at the end of the system.

Third system of musical notation. Treble and bass staves. Treble staff has a forte (f) dynamic marking. The word Con Brio. is written above the treble staff. Pedal markings are present at the end of the system.

Fourth system of musical notation. Treble and bass staves. Treble staff has a forte (f) dynamic marking. Pedal markings are present at the end of the system.

Musical score for piano, showing six systems of music. The score is in 2/4 time with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). It features a complex interplay between the right and left hands, with various dynamics (f, mf, sf) and pedal markings. The bottom system includes a "CROSS" marking and a page number "41 16".

This page of musical notation is for a piano piece, likely a 20th-century work given the complexity and use of extended techniques. It features a grand staff with two systems of three staves each. The notation is dense with complex rhythmic patterns, including many beamed sixteenth and thirty-second notes. Fingerings are indicated by numbers 1-5 above notes. Dynamic markings such as f (forte), ff (fortissimo), mf (mezzo-forte), and fz (forzando) are used throughout. Pedal markings (Ped.) with asterisks (*) indicate sustained pedal points. The piece is in a key with two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The notation includes various articulations like accents and slurs, and some notes are marked with 'x' for extended techniques. The overall texture is highly rhythmic and complex.

First system of the musical score for 'Svā'. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The tempo is marked 'Allegretto'. The score consists of two staves. The upper staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature change from two flats to one flat (B-flat). It contains a series of eighth-note chords, with fingerings 3, 2, 1, and 1 indicated. The lower staff begins with a bass clef and contains eighth-note chords, with fingerings 3, 2, 1, and 3 indicated. A dynamic marking 'f' (forte) appears in the lower staff. The instruction 'poco a poco cresc.' is written below the lower staff.

The musical score consists of two systems. The first system is for the piece 'Svea', which is in 3/4 time and features a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The melody is written in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The second system is for the piece 'Brilliant.', which is in 3/4 time and features a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is written in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The score includes various musical notations such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings like 'ff' (fortissimo) and 'Ped.' (pedal).

CURIOUS DISCOVERY OF A GENIUS.

In the year 1865, on a forenoon in August, a young man with threadbare, short coat stood before the ruler of the Munich court opera of that time. Hesitatingly and stammering, the young man uttered that he was school-teacher at Ebersberg, had a good voice, and that his highest wish was to become a member of the opera chorus. Would not the intendant give him a chance to sing for a trial? The party in authority was pleased by the sympathetic appearance of the applicant. He took him down upon the stage, where Music-director Franz Lachner was just holding an orchestral rehearsal. Upon being asked what he would like to sing, the novice in art slyly replied: "The great aria of Max in 'Der Freischütz.'" Lachner, who was not entirely pleased with the interruption, nevertheless had the orchestral parts fetched from the archives. They having been distributed to the musicians, the village school-master began with somewhat uncertain voice. After a few bars, however, his oppression had vanished. Clearly and sonorously the tones were emitted from his throat with a tenor voice of such fresh and brilliant quality as had not been heard for a long time upon the stage of the court opera house. The musicians were astonished; some of them even laid down their instruments and applauded. The rehearsal finished, Director Lachner hastened upon the stage and whispered to the manager: "Retain him under all circumstances!" The manager smiled pleasantly, and led his protégé back to the offices of the intendency.

"Will you really be able to make use of me?" the young man asked, trembling with joyful expectation.

"No, as a chorister I have absolutely no use for you," was the counselor's reply; and then he asked: "How much is your school-teacher's salary?"

"Four hundred florins," Vogl ruefully replied.

"Well," said the counselor, "I engage you for the present with a remuneration of twelve hundred florins, and will have you educated at the expense of the Royal Opera."

Thus Heinrich Vogl was discovered. Two months later, on November 9, 1865, the village schoolmaster made his debut as Max in "Der Freischütz." The success surpassed all expectations.—Berliner Tageblatt.

Do you want a most acceptable and useful present? Nomenclators have it at their elegant store, 519 Loenst street. You will find the choicest line of Umbrellas, Parasols and Canes in the West. Nomenclators make them, and their prices are right.

Try Cook's Extra Dry Imperial Champagne. There is no foreign wine that has its bouquet or any that is as pure. Forty years in the market and not an adulteration. "Strictly pure" is the motto. Cook's Extra Dry Imperial Champagne.

The Musical Times, of London, in telling what England did not have a hundred years ago, enumerates: No Bach's forty-eight preludes and fugues; no Beethoven's symphonies; no compositions by Mendelssohn, Chopin, Schumann, Brahms, or Wagner; no Philharmonic or other orchestral society; no great schools of music; no "Grove's Dictionary"; no tonic sol-fa; no organ, pianoforte, or vocal recitals; no female alto chorus-singers; no surprised choirs; no four-manual organs; no cheap music; no musical journals.

MANUEL GARCIA, the celebrated teacher of singing, has reached the advanced age of ninety-six. Born before Balfe, Mendelssohn, Chopin, and Schumann, he is still with us, having seen the most striking changes in the history of the art.
